Upcoming events:

5-16-09 ORTV Speech Contest

Henson, the new Choys, Teacher Charles, Peter, and Patricia went on the ORTV trip last Saturday. I (teacher Charles) sat on the bus next to Henson. I know I had a good time and I think Henson did, too. The pictures to the left are from our trip. The first stop was Lake Elsinore. It is a great recreational area. There were people and birds to watch. I don't know if you have ever seen a boat unloaded off of a trailer into the water, but we got to watch it happen a couple of times. The first picture is of a boat just after unloading. The second stop was in "old town" in Temecula. The name Temecula is native American and means "where the sun shines through the mist. It was nice with lots of stores and shops set up in the style of the "old west". There were also many stores that sold antiques. Henson took the second picture and it is of the gunfight that is staged at noon on Saturdays. The last stop was at Carlsbad Flower Gardens. Henson and I went wild with taking pictures there. The main flower grown there is the giant strain of Ranunculus known as Tecolote. I have posted the pictures I took and those that Henson took on our website, www.englishclass4u.com, in the gallery section. As you can see, the flowers were beautiful! The third picture is of Henson looking at the field of flowers. There were also other flowers to see and other things to do at the Flower Fields. There was a building with many different kinds of Poinsettias growing on display. There was a maze that had sweet peas growing on the walls of the maze. There was a Santa's village for the children to play in and many projects for children to do (Saturday was kid's day at the Flower Fields). The last picture is of an interactive display about the history of mining in the area where the flowers are grown. As I said, we had a wonderful time. See you on next year's ORTV trip!

But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere. James 3:17

惟獨從上頭來的智慧，先是清潔，後是和平，溫良柔順，滿有憐憫，多結善果，沒有偏見，沒有假冒。雅各書 3:17
