You may have heard of a local college in Pasadena named The California Institute of Technology (Caltech for short). Your English teacher graduated from there. And you may know that they are famous for their engineering students and for starting JPL and supplying many of the workers there. But did you know they have a band and a jazz band? The Caltech-Occidental Concert

Band is a joint operation of Caltech and Occidental college. The members are students and alumni from the colleges. The Caltech Jazz Band has a similar composition. If you like music and you'd like to hear them, Caltech is having the 30th annual Bandorama Concert at Ramo Auditorium on May 14th and 15th at 8pm. Both the concert band and the jazz band will perform. The concert is free and open to the public. For more information, call 626-395-3295 or visit their website at <http://bands.caltech.edu>. I know that you are tired of hearing about my new grandson, but my daughter sent me new pictures, so here are two. I am sure, at his age, that he just has gas, he is not smiling. Charlotte seems to be enjoying her little brother, for now. KaiTsu is having a great time. She gets to spoil her grandkids and bully her daughter. How wonderful it is to live in this time. Just 50 years ago, if my kids had been in Alaska, I would have heard from them rarely and, most of the time, only when they sent a letter. Long distance phone calls were so expensive. Even a letter would have taken a week to get to me. A hundred years ago, it would have been weeks before I got their letter. But now, my daughter just called me and we will talk face to face on Skype, and I can just talk to KaiTsu whenever I want. The downside of all this is that many people have forgotten the fine art of writing letters. Also, letters are a historical record of your conversations. Now it will be much harder to see how we have grown in our relationships.

Wait for the LORD; be strong and take heart and wait for the LORD. Psalm 27:14

要等候耶和華！當壯膽，堅固你的心！我再說，要等候耶和華！詩篇 27:14
