Covina Bethel English Class Newsweek

Give me events to put here

The pictures to the right are of KaiTsu's former students that she taught when she lived in Taiwan over 32 years ago. They came to Taichung to see KaiTsu and to get back together. There are 17 of her former students in the first picture. This was taken after a lunch we had with all of them. Later we and some of the students went to visit one of her former student's that is presently in a mental hospital. They had not seen her in a few years. That is the picture top right. Bottom left is of KaiTsu with four of her students, two of whom did not come to the lunch. The bottom right is in the parking lot owned and operated by another student who had not gone to the lunch. She and her husband own the parking lot and the whole block. That way their customers are their renter's customers. KaiTsu has seen a total of 22 of her former students (out of 54 original students). Many of them are doing quite well. We are having a good time in Taiwan. Besides our ministry of tutoring here in Wan-wei, we have been to Taichung three times to see KaiTsu's former students and to Taipei once, where we attended the funeral of the grandmother of Dave Chen, a member of Covina First Baptist Church. We are having fun in our English Class that we teach on Wednesday and Friday nights. And, of course, I really enjoy playing ping pong with the students at the local Jr. High. A few of them can beat me, but I am learning how to return their serves and slams. Unfortunately, for me, school will soon be out and I will no longer be able to play ping pong there. I guess I will have to find some other way to keep in shape. Which reminds me, how are those New Year's resolutions coming along? Have you had a chance to look at our website and check out the gallery that I put up? It is highlights from our first two weeks here. I will try to get another one up of the last two weeks. It will probably happen next week, as I am busy putting together some photos for KaiTsu's students.
