Jan 19th (next Monday), is Martin Luther King Jr. Day. This day is set aside to celebrate the work of Martin Luther King Jr., a leader in the civil rights movement. He led the 1955 Montgomery Bus Boycott and King's efforts led to the 1963 March on Washington, where King delivered his "I Have a Dream" speech. He won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964 for his work to end racial segregation and racial discrimination through civil disobedience and other non-violent means.. He was assassinated in 1968. In 1986, the third Monday of January, each year, was established as a national holiday to honor Martin Luther King Jr. Jan 20th (next Tuesday) is Inauguration Day. At noon at the White House in Washington DC, the next president of the United States, Obama, will take the Oath of Office specified in the Constitution. He must swear or affirm: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the Office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my Ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States." Then the President delivers an inaugural address, setting the tone for the new administration. He will then be president for the next for four years. During this time of financial depression and active terrorism, we need a strong leader to lead us. Pray for Obama, that he may be used of the Lord.

The pictures are two of the ones we took on vacation in Las Vegas.

Weekly Bible Verse:

The salvation of the righteous comes from the LORD; he is their stronghold in time of trouble. Psalm 37:39

但義人得救是由於耶和華；他在患難時作他們的營寨。詩篇 37:39
