Covina Bethel English Class Newsweek

Give me events to put here

Henson came to visit us on Thursday! When he came we were still tutoring students. Henson jumped right in and started helping out! It was great and the students really appreciated his help in math. After that we had lunch. Henson had bought some snacks (meat stuffed rice balls in a meat sauce) and we ate them for lunch. All the time we were talking to Henson. Then we went to the pastor's house where Henson met Pastor Joseph and his wife, Grace. Henson got along quite well with the pastor.

They discussed politics! It seems that seven Congressmen (in Taiwan) were convicted of voter fraud and removed from office. Last month the people of Taiwan had voted for three new Senators and next month they will vote for the remaining four. This is a special election to fill the positions that were vacated because of the fraud. This happens in the U.S. too, on occasion, but usually on a local level. There was a special election held in Massachusetts last Tuesday. It was because of the death of Senator Edward Kennedy. The state of Massachusetts has elected Senators from the Democratic Party for many years. However, this election was won by the Republican candidate. Some people believe this was very important as the Democrats had 60 members of the Senate and the Republicans only 40. This meant that any legislation that the Democrats wished to pass could become a bill without much discussion, especially as President Obama is also a Democrat. In most presidencies there is no such large percentage of one party, so most laws that are passed have been written to please people from both the Democratic and Republican parties. With a 60 member majority, the Democrats have been able to pass laws which do not do this. Now they will be forced to write laws that are more moderate. Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way; walk in it."
