Alright! Some of our members competed in the Mother's Day Speech Contest. Henson even won an award. Ask him what it was for. Mr. Hoang and Ying Choy and Henson all did a good job. They had a little trouble remembering all their lines, but I suspect with just a little more practice they would have gotten them all right. As you can see, we did have some of our members show up as audience. Thank you all for your support. Henson entreated us to call our mothers (or friends or the rest of our family). He said it is never too late to say, "I love you." Go to our website, www.englishclass4u.com, go to the links page and you will find a link to a video of Henson's speech. Monday is a holiday, "Memorial Day." As I said in a previous newsletter, Memorial Day is a day when we are supposed to honor the men and women who have died while in service to our country (i.e., as a soldier in one of our armed forces). Many feel that the day has lost a lot of its impact since it was changed from the 30th of May to the last Monday in May so that we could have a three day weekend. Many people just use it as a day to go shopping, have a vacation, a barbecue or to have family gatherings, instead of honoring our armed service dead. I think it has lost its impact. I do not remember the last time I heard a Memorial Day speech or saw a Memorial Day parade. This is America's loss, as kids are not brought up to reverence and remember those who have died to keep our country free. The first Memorial Day was held shortly after the Civil War and honored the dead from both sides of the war, North and South. It remained a memorial of the Civil War dead until after World War I when it was changed to include all who have died in service to our country.

¹⁷¹ May my lips overflow with praise, for You teach me Your decrees. ¹⁷² May my tongue sing of Your word, for all Your commands are righteous. Psalm 119:171-172

¹⁷¹ 願我的嘴發出讚美的話，因為你將律例教訓我。¹⁷² 願我的舌頭歌唱你的話，因你一切的命令盡都公義。詩篇 119:171-172
