Today, in class, we will celebrate Thanksgiving, so I am going to start this letter with a quote about giving thanks. It may be a little hard to understand, but once you do I am sure you will agree with the writer. “It is literally true, as the thankless say, that they have nothing to be thankful for. He who sits by the fire, thankless for the fire, is just as if he had no fire. Nothing is possessed save in appreciation, of which thankfulness is the indispensable ingredient. But a thankful heart hath a continual feast.” ~W.J. Cameron. This is what it means: The person who does not give thanks for what they have is someone who feels they have nothing. They probably want a lot of things and what they have they take for granted. They sit by a fire, but assume they will always have it, that it is their right. So, they are not thankful. You really can't “have” something unless you appreciate it and say, as it were, it is good to have this! This is impossible without being thankful for that something. W.J. Cameron's conclusion is that someone who is naturally thankful for what they have will have much to be thankful for. As Brother David Steindl-Rast says, “In daily life we must see that it is not happiness that makes us grateful, but gratefulness that makes us happy.” And gratefulness means to be thankful. The pictures above are some things that I am thankful for. I am going to end with this thanks poem by Ralph Waldo Emerson:

For each new morning with its light,
For rest and shelter of the night,
For health and food, for love and friends,
For everything Thy goodness sends.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good. His love endures forever.

Psalm 136:1

你們要稱謝耶和華，因他本為善；他的慈愛永遠長存。
