Henson was right, there will be a Bluesapalooza/Thunderfest in Covina today. You can go to the website, www.bluesapalooza.com to see the details. There will also be a Pumpkin Festival at Cal Poly Pomona on Oct. 17 & 18, which some of you went to last year. Next Monday will be Columbus Day. It is the Day when we celebrate the “discovery” of the “New World” by Christopher Columbus. He wanted to find a better route to gather spices. He convinced queen Isabella of Spain to finance his trip and took three ships make the trip, the Santa Maria, Nina and Pinta. On Oct. 12th, 1492, he landed in the Bahamas. In April 1934, Franklin Delano Roosevelt set aside Oct. 12th as Columbus Day and a Federal Holiday. In 1971, the celebration was moved to the second Monday in October. For many years it was thought that he was the first European to land on the Americas. Although people knew about the Sagas of the Greenlanders, in which it was claimed that Leif Erikson had actually landed on North America around the year 1000 AD, they thought that it was all just a legend that had been recorded in the 13th century. However, the discovery of the ruins of a Norse settlement in Newfoundland in 1963 that predated the Columbus voyage by about 500 years makes it clear there is some truth to the Sagas. In 1964, Congress authorized President Lyndon B. Johnson to create an observance of Leif Eriksson Day through an annual proclamation. Yesterday, Oct. 9th, was the day set aside for that proclamation. The pictures on the left side are about Leif Eriksson and the ones on the right are about Christopher Columbus.

By wisdom a house is built, and through understanding it is established; through knowledge its rooms are filled with rare and beautiful treasures. Proverbs 14:3-4

房屋因智慧建造，又因聰明立穩；其中因知識充滿各樣美好寶貴的財物。箴言 24:3-4
