11-15-08 ORTV one day

Well, today is our last class until September. I will miss you all, but hope you have a great summer. I know I plan to have one. Next Friday is July 4th, Independence Day. On July 4th we celebrate the signing of the Declaration of Independence, which happened on July 4th, 1776.

The Declaration of Independence starts out as shown in the box. As you can see, the founding fathers of our country believed in God and His interest in the affairs of Men. When we celebrate our declaration of independence from Great Britain, from the “establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States”, we celebrate the very foundation of our country. We usually celebrate with a picnic and watch fireworks in the evening. Many cities have fireworks displays. Are you going to watch the fireworks? Are you going to have a barbecue? Or you could watch baseball or the Nascar race or you could watch fireworks on TV. There is a special “Capitol Fourth” at the White House.

The Declaration of Independence

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. --That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.

Weekly Bible Verse:

21 Yet this I call to mind and therefore I have hope: 22 Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. 23 They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. Lamentations 3:21-23

21 我想起這事，心裡就有指望。22 我們不致消滅，是出於耶和華諸般的慈愛；是因他的憐憫不致斷絕。23 每早晨，這都是新的；你的誠實極其廣大！耶利米哀歌 3:21-23
